Bishop Clement W. Fugh and Mrs. Alexia Fugh

The 50th Quadrennial Session of the General Conference of the AME Church met in Philadelphia, PA, July 5 - 13, 2016. At its Commissioning Service held on Wednesday, July 13th, The Fifth Episcopal District of the AME Church was appointed new episcopal leadership. The Rt. Reverend Clement W. Fugh, the 131st elected and consecrated bishop in the AMEC was assigned to the Fifth Episcopal District of the AMEC.

Bishop Fugh served most recently, as the Presiding Prelate of the Fourteenth Episcopal District of the AMEC, comprising the countries of Liberia, Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Ghana, and Cote D'Ivoire, all on the continent of North Western Africa.

As the new Presiding Bishop of the Fifth Episcopal District of AMEC, Bishop Fugh will be responsible for supervising activities of the AME Church in the fourteen western states of the USA; from Missouri, north to Montana, west to Alaska and Washington, then south to California.

A special community reception honoring Bishop Fugh, his wife Alexia, and their family, will be held at First AME Church of Los Angeles on Friday, July 22, 2016, from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm. Civic officials, Ecumenical Leaders and Local Community Organizers will join clergy and members of the AMEC to welcome the new AMEC leader.

All attendees will be welcomed at the Allen House of FAME Church, located at 2249 South Harvard Blvd, Los Angeles, California 90018

Hosted by the Fifth Episcopal District of the AME Church at FAME Church of Los Angeles, Pastor "J" Edgar Boyd, Sr. Minister
