

The Bidly Mason
Commission on Foster and Transitioned Aged Youth

The Bidly Mason Commission on Foster & TAY Youth
Presents

The Second Annual Resource Fair
For Foster & TAY Youth

Saturday May 17, 2014

10:00am - 3:00pm

Location: First AME Church, the Allen House 2249 South Harvard Blvd Los Angeles 90016

There are 30,000 children within the foster care system in Los Angeles County. Annually 2500 youth emerge from foster care to very uncertain futures.

- Within 2-4 years 65% of these youth are homeless
- 46% don't graduate from High School
- Less than 3% attend college

The resource fair has been created to connect Foster & TAY Youth with resources that are designed to support and aid Foster and TAY youth in their journey to adulthood.

Los Angeles Trade Technical College

Operation Hope

Cal State Los Angeles

Charles Pickens & Artists

California Hospital

Eisner Family & Pediatric Center

Youth Moving On

Rightway Foundation

God Parents Youth Organization

Grandparents As Parents

Children's Bureau, Foster Care & Adoption

CASA

Los Angeles Child Guidance Center

USC , Admissions

If you are a Foster Youth, Transition Aged Youth, Foster Parent or Kinship Parent you need to attend.

Please email: jbbiddymason1@biddymason.com to register for the event

